

RIGHTS AND DUTIES ALLOCATED BETWEEN PARENTS

IT IS ORDERED that the following rights and duties shall be allocated between the parent Joint Managing Conservators:

1. the right to designate the primary residence of the children [within [specify geographical area]/without regard to geographic location];
2. the right to consent to medical, dental, and surgical treatment involving invasive procedures;
3. the right to consent to psychiatric and psychological treatment of the children;
4. the right to receive and give receipt for periodic payments for the support of the children and to hold or disburse these funds for the benefit of the children;
5. the right to represent the children in legal action and to make other decisions of substantial legal significance concerning the children;
6. the right to consent to marriage and to enlistment in the armed forces of the United States;
7. the right to make decisions concerning the children's education;
8. except as provided by section 264.0111 of the Texas Family Code, the right to the services and earnings of the children;
9. except when a guardian of the children's estates or a guardian or attorney ad litem has been appointed for the children, the right to act as an agent of the children in relation to the children's estates if the children's action is required by a state, the United States, or a foreign government; and,
10. the duty to manage the estates of the children to the extent the estates have been created by community property or the joint property of the parents.